

Let's adventure together!

Hi there! We're Gwyn (she/her) and Ami (she/her). Based in the Pacific Northwest, we inspire others to travel, get outside, and have fun! On social media and our blog we share travel itineraries, epic hikes, outdoor recreation and gear, and life as an LGBTQ+ couple. When we're not traveling (often in our truck camper) we call Spokane, Washington home.

Our partnership philosophy + expertise

Promoting travel and adventure through storytelling and education

We specialize in storytelling-driven social media content, blogging, and professional photography related to USA travel, outdoor adventures (hiking, backpacking), and lifestyle. We work with brands to help tell their unique stories and build authentic engagement with our audience, and we bring an ethic of professionalism, transparency, and fun to all of our partnerships! Our core values include leave no trace, sustainability, and LGBTQ+ representation.
